W/Aayana McCreary. W/McCreary conducted a forensic interview with V. W/McCreary stated she found the following risks that occur in the Vega household: V. stated hits all of her body but mostly on her head and face. S/Dorothea Vega hits her with objects such as toilet plungers, brooms, sticks, shoes, rulers, and wooden spoons along with an open or closed fist. S/Dorothea Vega has left marks and bruises on her from being battered. S/Dorothea Vega provides her with excessive amounts of prescribed medication. S/Dorothea Vega would give V/ three Depakotes, three Respidols, and allergy medication, and was over medicating V/ V/ stated she is not allowed to come out of her room except to eat or do chores and stated that there is an alarm on her bedroom door and if she comes out of her room the alarm will sound and she will be beaten. The alarm on the door was also verified by the Student Resource Officer who took photographs of this incident. The SRO also provided photographs of the living conditions of V. which included a dirty mattress on the floor, windows screwed shut, and a dog cage with feces in it. W/McCreary's findings also stated that V/ has to get permission to take a bath and is sometimes not permitted to eat. V/ states she has to come to school and bathe in the bathroom to prepare for a full day of school. W/McCreary's recommendation stated she was going to refer V/ to a psychologist for further evaluation. W/McCreary's findings were positive for abuse. W/McCreary sworn and affirmed to her investigative findings.

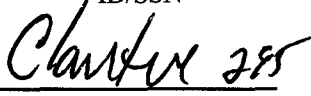

On 11/30/12, V/ was taken to the Emerald Coast Psychology LLC where she was seen and interviewed by Dr Julian A Salinas, Ph.D, Licensed Psychologist (Florida license #PY6703). Dr Salinas completed and eight page evaluation with the following relevant concerns: Dr Salinas stated

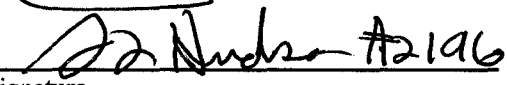

It is further ordered by Dr Salinas that unsupervised contact between Jordan and her adoptive parents is not recommended until the conclusion of Child Protection Services and law enforcement investigations.

Based on the above facts and circumstances, a warrant affidavit is being submitted for judicial review. A Victim Notification Form will be completed and submitted with the warrant.

Time spent on investigation: 1 hour.
